

debate, but were printed without provocation—words uttered only in printing, and not in a manly fashion. The privilege of printing in the House of Representatives is not to be given to the power of personal insult. Even if proper under the rules, the exercise of that power is not to be given to the power of personal insult. Mr. Williams, quoting from Mr. Walker's speech, objected to that gentleman's declaration that the gentleman in this House held the same "by gross deception and moral fraud." These were the more serious. The gentleman from Worcester had quoted from the sermon on the Mount. For a rock-faced and sky-scaring monument of blasphemy commend him to the words in which the gentleman compared the gentleman in this House to the Saviour of men to the Saviour of the world.

Mr. Williams: "Yes, I do, because I have been one." (Laughter.) Continuing, Mr.
Williams said that in 1884 he had done himself the honor of breaking through the Republican party. (Laughter.) He said that in that campaign one of the most difficult tasks the executive committee had to do was to curb and check the ardor and zeal of the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Walker), who now made this attack on his former associates. Mr. Williams said that in 1884 there had not been a greater murmur than the gentleman from Worcester.
And now he had done it. (Laughter.) He commended to the gentleman the notable sermon to which he had referred in his speech:

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when ye have made him, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

This daily was followed by loud and continued laughter. Mr. Walker arose. He said that it was evident to the House for what purpose the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Williams) had arisen. He said that he arose, as he had arisen in the legislative bodies at home, for the purpose of exhibiting himself. The clerk reading the Bible to a Democratic House. (Laughter.) And the gentleman had to read it; he could not repeat it. It was not a new, fresh, and new, and so surprising that the Democrats had cheered him to the echo. (Laughter.) It had rather the effect of inspiring him than the gentleman could inspire by his remarks of his own. The head-lines to his speech, to which he had referred in his speech, had not been written in his manuscript, and he was surprised when he saw them in the Record. He had not written them.

Mr. Cram of Texas—Who writes your speech? (Laughter.)
Mr. Williams: "I write my own speech." Mr. Cram: "I am glad to hear that, but after his speech passed from his hands the official reporter has changed the words and they were inserted at the Government Printing Office."

Mr. Walker: "If the gentleman gives up boasting the House and everybody else I will attend to my business." (Laughter.) Continuing, Mr. Walker said that he had had several copies of his speech, and he had put the lead-lines to one of them.
By an accident, which was liable to happen to any one, that copy had been sent to the printing office. In response to the gentleman from Texas, he would say that the gentleman who wrote the speech was Mr.
Walker of Worcester. (Laughter.) He asked that the head-lines be stricken from the Record. The speaker then turned to the committee on printing for investigation and the House took a recess, the evening session to be for the consideration of pension bills.

The House in committee of the whole tonight agreed to seven pension bills, but passed none of them, half past 10 having arrived to-morrow.

MINOR MATTERS.

Senator Voorhees Gives His Opinion of In-

WASHINGTON, March 18.—A bill to amend the law relating to the introduction of intoxicants into the Indian country, called up in the Senate to-day by Mr. Wilson of Iowa, which re-enacted a provision of existing law providing for the forfeiture of all weapons and ammunition, liquor, or other articles to a market where the intoxicants are sold. On Mr. Voorhees's objection the bill went over until tomorrow.

To Regulate Grading of Grain.
WASHINGTON, March 18.—Senator Casey, from the committee on agriculture, to-day made a favorable report on Mr. Sherman's bill authorizing and requiring the Secretary of Agriculture to fix uniform standards of classification and grading for wheat, corn, oats, rye and barley. The committee added an amendment so as to provide that in interstate trade or commerce in grain, if the consignee or consignee's agent so desires, public inspection, classification and grading shall not be required nor made when the grain is consigned to its owner or his authorized agent, or to a mill, or to a private store-house, or for deposit in a special bin, a public warehouse, or to a purchaser, or if consigned to a market where the usages of trade recognize the sale of grain by sample, when the consignee shall direct its sale in that way.

All Are Improving.
WASHINGTON, March 18.—Secretary Blaine continues to improve, and his physician hopes he will be able to ride out early next week.

Senator Morrill's family is much encouraged over the improvement in his condition, and believes that he has passed the danger line.
Representative Springer's physician reports him as gaining a little strength every day. He sat up for a while to-day.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The price—90.15 cents per ounce—paid by the Treasury Department to-day for silver, is the lowest figure at which the government has ever purchased silver.

evening.

appropriating $50,000 for a statue of Gen.
W. L. Sherman in Washington.

A bill granting a pension to the widow of a soldier, who was killed in the service of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and of the navy-yard was passed by the Senate today.

The Secretary of State has received a dispatch from the British minister at Tel-Aviv, saying that it appears that the recent political disturbances in that country have entirely ceased and that the safety of foreigners is now assured.

The receipts from internal revenue during the first month of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1931, were $10,000,000, an increase of $2,000,000 over receipts during the corresponding period of the last year.

The House committee on rules today decided to recommend an investigation by a committee of the House into charges relating to the granting and rescinding of certain leases in the Yellowstone National Park.

Assistant Secretary Grant has recovered from the grip and was at the War Department this afternoon.

The Treasury Department to-day purchased $2,000,000 of silver at 90.15 and 90.22 cents. Recent heavy disbursements have reduced the treasury balances to $20, 000,000, of which $15,000,000 is in gold with national banks and $5,000,000 in subsidary and minor coin. The national bank-note circulation is now $161,000,000, an increase of nearly $20,000,000 since July last. All the four-and-one-half per cent bonds held by national banks to secure circulation have been surrendered, with the exception of a lot of $12,500 belonging to the First National Bank of Los Angeles, which is going into voluntary liquidation.

PUT ARSENIC IN THE COFFEE.

A Boy Arrested for Poisoning His Mother, Brother and Sisters—Two Girls Dead.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 18.—Mrs. Richard Melrose, 49, daughter, Minnie, Katie and Mattie and her eldest son, David, became violently sick last night after drinking coffee containing arsenic. Robert Melrose, the younger son, drank but little coffee and it is a disputed question as to whether he drank any. He complained of being sick and drinking some salt-water.
The mother, Minnie, Katie and Mattie, respectively, died. David and his mother are very ill, but may recover. Robert is also quite ill. It is thought that the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Wal-
former associates, is the culprit, and he is now under arrest to await the result of the inquest. He had given the family much trouble.

REVOLUTION IN VENEZUELA.

Bloody Battle Between Rebels and Government Troops Near the Capital.

Ex-President Blanco Reported to Have Incited an Insurrection That Will Involve the Republic in a Long Civil War.

NEW YORK, March 19.—A cablegram from Caracas, Venezuela, to the Herald announces that the opposition to President Blanco has resulted in a resort to arms. A bloody engagement has been fought between a body of revolutionaries and government troops near this city. So far as can be learned now the advantage is with the government. There will be a desperate fight for the control of the country which may result in the loss of many lives and again plunge the republic into chaos, from which it was just beginning to emerge. The revolutionaries are said to be in a desperate straits. In fact, the only reliable news is that the revolutionaries are to retire.

It has been an open secret that a fight would follow the elections, no matter what the result might be, and for months both parties have been preparing for it. President Blanco has taken every possible measure to retain power and to strengthen his position, while his opponents have also been busy engaged in recruiting and arming themselves in anticipation of the final struggle. The national election was to have been held on Feb. 10, but the President saw it to postpone it until Feb. 20, and before that date came a further possibility was announced. It is said that ex-President Guzman Blanco is at the back of the revolutionary movement, and that he has been working for some time throughout the country. His followers have for several years been actively engaged in plotting for the overthrow of the present government and organizing another. They are well supplied with arms and munitions, and have a hard fight just what move will be made on the part of the government cannot be ascertained, but it is expected that the President will be taken to suppress all efforts of the revolutionaries to concentrate their forces.
The situation appears to be confident that order will be restored, but the confidence is not shared by many well-informed residents of the capital. The situation may be set down as critical.

A Heavy Chicago Bank Failure.

CHICAGO, March 18.—The failure of Chicago's wealthiest, private banker, launched to-day by a big bank, has been had been even remotely conjectured.
Assignee Lanehart was examined in the county court, and gave out a statement of assets and liabilities that he characterized as fairly accurate. He placed the liabilities at $2,000,000, and assets at $1,000,000. Mr.
Lanehart said there were $100,000 worth of certificates of deposit which Schweitzer had given out to hold the tangible assetment was made that of $200,000 scheduled as "doubtful and slow assets." $100,000 of them from the Atkinson steel company, of which Lanehart was president, and spring works, of which $200,000 had been put to judgment. Besides scheduled liabilities, there is an unknown contingent liability of $1,000,000, which Lanehart already appeared. It is estimated that the assignee will be able to pay only 30 cents on the dollar.

Corrupt Ring of Aldermen Demanded and Was Paid $500,000 for Passing Three Separate Steals—$1,000 for a Single Vote.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CHICAGO, March 18.—Alderman Stanley H. Kunz was the only witness called before the grand jury to-day to testify in the aldermanic bootleg case. What the nature of his evidence was Kunz declined to say.
His testimony, however, was given in reference to the State's attorney and he is known to have told the grand jury where much bootleg could be found. The State's attorney, who conducted the examination, said:
"Kunz didn't give testimony, you may depend on that. He talked to the jury for half an hour, and will again appear tomorrow, when, if he tells all he knows, his examination will consume more time than it did to-day."

There will be no limit to the scope of the investigation. The witnesses will be many, and will include some of the best-known men in political, financial and business circles in the city. All the officers of the various corporations which have benefited by the actions of the Council will be called on to testify. The State's attorney and his men back in Chicago are determined to get the truth, and they will not be deterred by the fact that the witnesses must and shall tell the truth. Should any one of them in his testimony vary from the facts known to the State's attorney he will be
